Deacon José Zamora, Pastoral Leader

Last month we heard the parable of the sower. Because the sower threw seed around with no regard to where it fell, much of it failed to produce fruit. As Jesus revealed later, he is the sower and the seed is the good news of the kingdom. Today we see a portrayal of Peter that is not so flattering, but remember that when Jesus called him in the first days of his mission, Peter immediately dropped his nets and followed. Peter is like the seed that fell on rocky ground. Recall Jesus said, "Some fell on rocky ground . . . It sprang up at once . . . [but] withered for lack of roots". On rocky ground, on rocky waters, Peter's faith at this point is not well-anchored. But eventually the extravagance of the sower will be rewarded. Not this night, not even on that later night before the cock crowed, but in the end Peter's faith produces fruit, many hundredfold.

Peter is honestly trying to show faith. In daring Jesus to call him out of the boat and onto the water, he is not trying to prove Jesus wrong as some Pharisees consistently tried to do. He truly believes in Jesus' power. But he becomes frightened. On the night he denied Jesus three times, he again became frightened. Whether of drowning or of being crucified, Peter's fears are obstacles to his faith. Only after his faith is strengthened by Jesus' victory over death and the gift of the Holy Spirit does Peter publicly testify immediately and courageously to his faith in the Son of God. His testimony of the need for repentance and forgiveness is especially apt.

Our lives can be like a boat tossed about by the waves, leaving us fearful and exhausted. But recall Jesus' final words to those he loved: "I am with you always". Can we see Jesus coming to us on the rough seas, reassuring us and staying with us? Can we trust in the One who overcame death itself to guide us through the rough waters of our life? Question of the Week Who can I accompany on their journey through stormy waters? How can I reassure them and assist them?

This November, the state of Ohio will vote on the extreme and dangerous abortion initiative the state has ever seen. Planned Parenthood and the ACLU have initiated an amendment to change the Ohio Constitution that would legalize painful, late term abortions up to the point of birth, paid for with our tax-payer dollars. The proposed amendment would also eliminate parental rights if a minor were seeking an abortion or even a sex-change operation. Do not sign a petition to legalize painful, late term abortions and join the fight to ultimately defeat this amendment at: www.protectwomenohio.com or www.ohiolife.org.
