Mission Statement

We, the members of St. Mary Parish, dedicated to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, are conscious of the struggles of our faith-filled ancestors. We strive to become a holy and vibrant community through personal prayer, meaningful liturgies, and opportunities to develop our faith. As God's people, we recognize the values and importance of each person and desire to reach out to all the people in our area who need God's Word, Love and Care.

The Diocese of Toledo

remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric or by any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and to contact the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) 214-4880; or to write to: Victim Assistance Coordinator

Deacon José Zamora, Pastoral Leader

The author of the passage of Isaiah that we hear today is unafraid to make a bold statement about God's will during a tumultuous time in Israel's history. Cyrus the Great, the Persian king, had just liberated the Israelites, fifty years after they were driven into exile by the Babylonians. They returned to Judah and found it desolate, with Jerusalem in ruins. But "Third Isaiah" (scholars believe this author of the book was the third to write under Isaiah's name) challenges his compatriots to not only rebuild the temple and the country, but also to welcome all peoples to come worship the LORD. Though the pagan nation of Babylon had destroyed Judah and conquered its people, the pagan nation of Persia had rescued them and restored their lands. Isaiah understood that believing all foreigners to be evil and dangerous was simply wrong.

It appears contradictory for Jesus to say, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel" while standing in the region of Tyre and Sidon, which was clearly outside of Judea. However, the Good Shepherd will not stop at boundaries to pursue his sheep. Therefore, this Canaanite woman feels free to challenge him to break down another boundary. Jesus refuses initially, but her persistence leads him to acquiesce, healing her daughter, sight unseen.

Faith is key, but it may come from anyone, even far outside the community of believers. In the Gospel, it is the faith of the Canaanite woman that convinces Jesus to answer her prayer. In Isaiah, it is foreigners who come to God's holy mountain with sacrifices and offerings. In Paul's letter to the Romans, it is Gentiles whom Paul not only welcomes but hopes may spur Jewish people like Paul to accept Christ. Faith is to be encouraged in all peoples. Whom is the message of inclusion in today's readings challenging me to look at differently? How can I be more accepting of others?

2023 Annual Catholic Appeal...

St. Mary's 2023 goal for the Annual Catholic Appeal is $10,231.00. Through our contributions, we can assure the continued existence of many important programs that help tens of thousands in our diocese each year, including supporting the education of our seminarians, deacons, caring for the sick and needy, and providing faith formation for our youth. All donations, large or small, are greatly appreciated. Many thanks to the 60 households who have already donated or pledged $8,954.50 to the ACA (87.52% of our goal). Thank you., Deacon José.

This November, the state of Ohio will vote on the extreme and dangerous abortion initiative the state has ever seen. Planned Parenthood and the ACLU have initiated an amendment to change the Ohio Constitution that would legalize painful, late term abortions up to the point of birth, paid for with our tax-payer dollars. The proposed amendment would also eliminate parental rights if a minor were seeking an abortion or even a sex-change operation. Do not sign a petition to legalize painful, late term abortions and join the fight to ultimately defeat this amendment at:

ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO...

✠ Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?

✠ Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?

✠ Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. There are separate sessions for children or youth. Classes begin on September 17th.

You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. For information contact Deacon José Zamora at (419) 547-9687 or
