

From the Desk of Sister Regina, Pastoral Leader

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy.

Some quotes on the divine mercy of God to reflection on this week:

'Our sins are nothing but a grain of sand alongside the great mountain of the mercy of God.' -- St. John Vianney

'Where is the foolish person who would think it in his power to commit a sin more than God could forgive.' -- St. Francis de Sales

'Since God displayed His great mercy in so many ways even toward Judas, an apostle turned traitor, since He invited him so often to be forgiven and did not allow him to perish except through despair alone, surely there is no cause for anyone in this life to despair even if an imitator of Judas.' -- St. Thomas More

'God acts mercifully, not indeed by going against His justice, but by doing something more than justice; thus a man who pays another two hundred pieces of money, though owing him only one hundred, does nothing against justice, but acts liberally or mercifully. The case is the same with one who pardons an offence committed against him, for in remitting it he may be said to bestow a gift.' -- St. Thomas Aquinas

'Conversion to God always consists in discovering His mercy, that is, in discovering that love which is patient and kind as only the Creator and Father can be; the love to which the 'God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ' is faithful to the uttermost consequences in the history of His covenant with man; even to the cross and to the death and resurrection of the Son. Conversion to God is always the fruit of the rediscovery of this Father, who is rich in mercy.' -- Pope John Paul II

'Our only hope, our only confidence, our only assured promise, Lord, is Your mercy.' -- St. Augustine

“I am love and Mercy Itself. There is no misery that could be a match for My mercy, neither will misery exhaust it, because as it is being granted – it increases. The soul that trusts in My mercy is most fortunate, because I Myself take care of it.” (1273, page 459 of the Diary of St. Faustina)
