In both the first reading and the Gospel, the person who originally provides the food remains unnamed. The author of the second book of Kings tells us where the man with the barley loaves came from (significantly, a region named for a pagan god, Baal), but not his name. We learn even less about the boy in the crowd who had five loaves and two fish. But it is their anonymous offerings that allow God to perform the miracle of feeding multitudes from a small amount of food. Today, we look not for personal recognition of our contributions, but that God may use the little we are able to offer to perform great things.

Nearly every Sunday this year the Gospel is from Mark, but today and during the month of August we hear from the sixth chapter of John's Gospel, where Jesus reveals himself to be the Bread of Life. The theme is introduced today in the form of five simple barley loaves, which Jesus shares to feed a multitude. We know that eventually he will reveal that the bread he shares with his disciples at the Passover meal is truly his body, which becomes living bread, even as it is sacrificed on the cross. Now and at every Eucharist it is shared to feed the multitude of those who believe. The bread we offer each day becomes the Bread of Life, a miracle in every celebration of the Eucharist.

Recall that last week Mark told us that Jesus brought his disciples across the Sea of Galilee to give them a chance to rest and reflect in a deserted place, but the crowds got there first and "his heart was moved with pity," and he began to teach them. Today we hear that Jesus' heart was moved not only by their hunger for God's word, but also by their hunger for food itself. Out of compassion for these "sheep without a shepherd," the Good Shepherd leads them and feeds them. What can I offer this week, without expecting anything in return, that could provide more than it would if I kept it for myself?

The Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation in Carey invites area singers to join the 2024 Assumption Choir. This choir, along with a brass quintet, will lead the music for the Vigil Mass of the Assumption, in the Shrine Park, on Wednesday, August 14, 2024 at 9:30pm. This unique experience gives singers, ranging from amateur to professional, the opportunity to sing a wide variety of music with a short-term commitment. Rehearsals will be held from 4:00–5:30pm in the Original Shrine Church (next to the Gift Shop) on Sundays: July 28, August 4, and August 11. As the Bishops of Ohio have promoted a statewide pilgrimage to the Shrine, this year's Mass is expected to have 15,000 or more in attendance. Please direct any questions to the basilica's Director of Music Ministries, Mr. Anthony Gallina, at music@olcshrine.com or 419-396-7107, ext. 104.
