In the first reading, the hearth cake that the angel brings Elijah sustains him for a forty-day journey. It must have been some hearth cake! But some details are symbolic. First of all, forty days can be a period of testing or trial, like Jesus' forty days in the desert or Moses' forty days on Mount Sinai/Horeb. The hearth cake and jug of water were signs of God's providence, gifts from God to Elijah. The Eucharist we receive today does not have the nutrition we need to sustain us forty days without food. However, it is a gift from the Lord—his very body, offered for us—and it can sustain us on our journey through life, which can often test our faith and be a trial. May we recognize the strength we receive from the Lord today, much as Elijah did centuries ago.

Note that Elijah needed a second push. After he ate and drank his fill, he went back to bed! The angel has to come back, awaken him again, and order him to complete his journey. It is only then, after eating and drinking some more, that he felt strong enough to continue. What's important is that God did not give up on him. We too may need another push to get us on our way, but God will not give up on us either.

How often have we felt like saying, "O God, enough already!" like Elijah? What has enabled us to continue, to eventually overcome the obstacles in our way? Today we hear Jesus assure the crowds that he is the Bread of Life and that he can and will sustain us forever. God had a journey planned for Elijah—to God's holy mountain—and wasn't going to let him give up. Jesus has a journey planned for us—to God's kingdom—and isn't going to let us give up either. Whenever we feel like crying out, "Enough!" let us remember that Jesus can sustain us and nourish us through all of life's trials. How does receiving Christ in the Eucharist strengthen me to overcome obstacles on my journey to the kingdom?

The Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation in Carey invites area singers to join the 2024 Assumption Choir. This choir, along with a brass quintet, will lead the music for the Vigil Mass of the Assumption, in the Shrine Park, on Wednesday, August 14, 2024 at 9:30pm. This unique experience gives singers, ranging from amateur to professional, the opportunity to sing a wide variety of music with a short-term commitment. Rehearsals will be held from 4:00–5:30pm in the Original Shrine Church (next to the Gift Shop) on Sundays: July 28, August 4, and August 11. As the Bishops of Ohio have promoted a statewide pilgrimage to the Shrine, this year's Mass is expected to have 15,000 or more in attendance. Please direct any questions to the basilica's Director of Music Ministries, Mr. Anthony Gallina, at music@olcshrine.com or 419-396-7107, ext. 104.
