In Proverbs, the author writes that Wisdom invites people from all over the city to a banquet. She promises that those with foolish thinking (you know who they are!) will gain understanding. In other words, the food she offers is herself, wisdom. In the Gospel, Jesus offers himself, “the living bread that came down from heaven,” for the crowds to eat. Like Wisdom, he sets a banquet and invites everyone to feed on himself. Between digesting the Word and receiving the Eucharist, we can have both understanding and eternal life within us.

Paul tells the Ephesians to “try to understand what is the will of the Lord.” Sometimes that is difficult. It is often challenging to discern the right thing to do or to decide upon a direction to move. Paul goes on to tell them, “do not get drunk on wine . . . but be filled with the Spirit.” Sound advice! We should do the same, becoming conscious of the Holy Spirit within us, for the Holy Spirit can guide us on the right path.

If it seems as if we have been hearing about Jesus as the Bread of Life for a few weeks now, you are absolutely right! John obviously thought that this teaching was quite important. Perhaps not coincidentally, John is the only evangelist who does not write about Jesus offering his Body and Blood at the Last Supper. This chapter takes its place. Keep in mind that this lecture to his disciples took place before the Last Supper. Therefore, the Last Supper is actually Jesus’ opportunity to remind the disciples of when he said they must eat his flesh and drink his blood and that then he would remain in them and give them life. His disciples believed in him, they followed him, and they obeyed him, but Jesus tells them that they must do more. They must consume him and truly take him into themselves. Do I look to the Holy Spirit for guidance? Do I take the time to discern God’s will? Will I add that to my decision-making process now?

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

Currently, those who have the pre-printed offertory envelopes are being sent envelopes on a bi-monthly schedule. There have been some issues with parishioners not receiving their envelopes. Because of that, as well as a savings to the Church, we have decided to go to an annual system. We will order envelopes for parishioners who are on the “list” from the supplier—they will be sent here to the church—and then be set up in the back of church and all you will have to do is simply pick up your box. We should receive the 2025 envelopes sometime in December—watch for the notice in the bulletin. If you do NOT receive offertory envelopes and would like to, please contact the Parish Office at (419) 547-9687 as soon as possible and we’ll get you on the list. If you have any questions, call the Parish Office. The office is open Mon-Thu, 9am—3pm. Alternately, you may email your request to: office@clydestmary.org

Happenings Around the Diocese of Toledo

The Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation in Carey invites area singers to join the 2024 Assumption Choir. This choir, along with a brass quintet, will lead the music for the Vigil Mass of the Assumption, in the Shrine Park, on Wednesday, August 14, 2024 at 9:30pm. This unique experience gives singers, ranging from amateur to professional, the opportunity to sing a wide variety of music with a short-term commitment. Rehearsals will be held from 4:00–5:30pm in the Original Shrine Church (next to the Gift Shop) on Sundays: July 28, August 4, and August 11. As the Bishops of Ohio have promoted a statewide pilgrimage to the Shrine, this year’s Mass is expected to have 15,000 or more in attendance. Please direct any questions to the basilica’s Director of Music Ministries, Mr. Anthony Gallina, at music@olcshrine.com or 419-396-7107, ext. 104.
