Mission Statement

We, the members of St. Mary Parish, dedicated to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, are conscious of the struggles of our faith-filled ancestors. We strive to become a holy and vibrant community through personal prayer, meaningful liturgies, and opportunities to develop our faith. As God's people, we recognize the values and importance of each person and desire to reach out to all the people in our area who need God's Word, Love and Care.

The Diocese of Toledo

remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric or by any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and to contact the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) 214-4880; or to write to: Victim Assistance Coordinator 1933 Spielbusch Avenue Toledo, Ohio 43604.

Together with a culture of work, there must be a culture of leisure as gratification. To put it another way: people who work must take the time to relax, to be with their families, to enjoy themselves, read, listen to music, play a sport. Pope Francis

From the Desk of...

Deacon José Zamora, Pastoral Leader

We work in many different ways. Most adults work for an employer, working at a job site or a desk, getting paid by their employer. Many adults work for their families, raising their children or caring for an elderly or a family member with special needs. Many adults work multiple jobs or have many responsibilities. For children and teens, school is their main work. But there’s a whole other work that we have as Christians, and that’s the work of hearing the word of God and—nourished by the Eucharist and guided by the Spirit—putting it into action in our world. As James so bluntly put it: “Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves.”

If we leave here today and do nothing to put God’s word and Jesus’ presence into action this coming week, we will have failed. If we return next week realizing that we have not given any thought to our faith since today, we will have failed. We sang in today’s psalm that “the one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord”. Note the easily overlooked word does. Are you actively doing justice in your family, your school or workplace, your community, the world? Are you finding and taking opportunities to do justice socially, economically, environmentally? To hear the call for justice is good, to take it to heart and preach it is better, but what we are truly called to do is to do it.

Moses boldly proclaims that if they observe God’s commands carefully, their new nation, Israel, will be seen by others as wise and intelligent. Why? He points to two characteristics:

- 1) God is close, accompanying them and ready to respond, and
- 2) their laws are just. Justice was paramount, demanding fairness, impartiality, and righteousness.

Observance of the law brought justice. Over time, some in authority missed this connection and focused on infractions like eating with unclean hands. Recall the story of the good Samaritan, whom the priest and the Levite passed by because they felt they needed to keep their hands pure. In rebuking these men, Jesus condemns the practice of tying God’s commands to human rituals rather than to creating a just world. Question of the Week Where do I see injustice in my family, workplace, community, or the world? What will I do to help bring justice to those who need it in each of those places?
