It is not difficult to imagine the nation of Israel being threatened from every side. So it was during Jeremiah’s time as well. His prophetic messages were alternatively decried or ignored. Eventually the nation was defeated and most of the Jewish people were sent into exile. This is the background behind Jeremiah’s incredibly hopeful and consoling oracle we hear today. The LORD will bring back the exiles—the strong and the weak, the young and the old, the blind and the lame—gathering them from near and far, consoling them and guiding them as a parent would a child. As Christians, this reminds us of our journey to the cross, Jesus gathering us all, consoling us and guiding us, as he did Bartimaeus, with the promise of eternal life.

Bartimaeus did not know it at the time, but when he decided to follow Jesus, our Lord was approaching the most difficult part of his journey. Jericho was only about twenty miles from Jerusalem. The verse that immediately follows today’s Gospel says that Jesus sent two disciples into Jerusalem to get the beast of burden that would bear Jesus into the holy city. Bartimaeus may have been one of those two! Scripture scholars point out that the fact that his name is given by Mark in this Gospel suggests he became a prominent disciple. His faith is clearly apparent, as he calls Jesus by a messianic title, “Son of David”, and is the only person in Mark to address him as “Master.” Though blind, he was able to see Jesus as the Messiah and was willing to throw aside his old life (symbolized by his cloak, where he held the coins he collected) and follow him without knowing where he was leading him.

Bartimaeus’s request, “Master, I want to see, can be ours today”). We may not be physically blind, but we may fail to see the answers to the big questions of life. Jesus offers us the chance to see what may elude us. This can be what we ask for now. We want to see what is truly important in life. We want to see what we are called to do and to be. We want to see the path that Jesus calls us to follow. Note that Bartimaeus immediately followed Jesus on the way; he just wanted to see the way. Like him, we want to see the way. What will I do this week to discern the way for me? What else do I want to see?

Pat the October meeting (Oct. 14), Joni Wasserman and Deacon Jose Zamora presented a $1,200 check to Sisters in Shelter—this donation represented 1/2 of the proceeds from the July Rummage Sale.

In other news from ARS, the Halloween Party committee expresses deep appreciation and “thanks” to all those who helped put the first-ever joint adventure between ARS and the Knights of Columbus. Additionally, many hands helped set up for the party—and cleanup afterwards. President Deborah Kuns thanks each and every one who had their hands in some part of the party! Last, but not least, she also thanks everyone who brought in Halloween candy to put in kids’ goodie bags—the event was a hit...see some highlights on the last page of this week’s bulletin.

Thank you, thank you, thank you—one and all!

The next meeting for ARS is November 4th at 6 pm.

The next Knights of Columbus meeting is November 11th at 7 pm.
