We, the members of St. Mary Parish, dedicated to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, are conscious of the struggles of our faith-filled ancestors. We strive to become a holy and vibrant community through personal prayer, meaningful liturgies, and opportunities to develop our faith. As God's people, we recognize the values and importance of each person and desire to reach out to all the people in our area who need God's Word, Love and Care. The Diocese of Toledo

It is not a surprise to see Peter out on the sea fishing. He was, after all, a fisherman. Without Jesus to lead him, Peter returns to his old vocation. It is also unsurprising to see him fishing at night. From the middle of the sea, he won't be able to hear the rooster crowing at dawn, that daily reminder of his betrayal on that fateful morning. Finally, it was inevitable that their labor produced nothing; the same thing happened before they encountered Jesus the first time. Symbolically, the contrast between their catch without Jesus (zero) and with Jesus (one hundred fifty-three, thought to represent all the known species) cannot be starker. At last, Peter realizes that his true vocation is to "catch" disciples from every place on earth.

After Jesus had been arrested and taken away, Peter stood by a charcoal fire to warm himself when he was accused three times of being one of Jesus' disciples. Now, after Jesus has died and risen and returned to reveal himself to his disciples, he and Peter are again surrounding a charcoal fire when Jesus asks him three times if he loves him. Jesus had known that Peter would deny him three times. Now he gives him the opportunity to reconcile with him three times. By allowing Peter to make amends, Jesus forgives him. Though we do not hear the cock crow at all, we are told all this happens after dawn. With dawn, a new day for Peter and all the disciples arises.

We hear Peter answer Jesus in the Gospel, but we see him show his love and loyalty to Jesus in the first reading. The Sanhedrin were determined to prevent any mention of Jesus, let alone preaching and teaching in his name. Not only does Peter not deny Jesus, he proudly and courageously testifies to Jesus' glory and declares that he will follow God's orders and not theirs. Peter has put his convictions into action. He has given his fellow disciples, then and now, a model to follow. When have I found the courage to speak out on behalf of what I believe?

BINGO KITCHEN & BINGO FLOOR HELP NEEDED

The Bingo Kitchen could use a couple more volunteers to commit on a monthly basis to help out in the Bingo Kitchen—roughly, 2 hours to serve Bingo patrons.

The Bingo Floor Workers come in before Bingo begins and leave when Bingo is over.

For more information, or to volunteer, please contact the Parish Office at (419) 547-9687 and speak with Deacon Jose or Cheri.

2025 Diocese of Toledo Happenings:

Together with all the priests, deacons, consecrated religious and lay faithful of the Diocese of Toledo, and united with all Catholics and people of goodwill throughout the world, with deep sadness we mourn the death of Pope Francis, after 12 years as our universal shepherd, the 265th successor to Saint Peter.

A native son of the Diocese of Toledo was recently named Bishop of Providence, Rhode Island. Most Reverend Bruce A. Lewandowski, CSsR, grew up on a family farm near Lima and attended St. Gerard Parish. He was ordained a priest for the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, the religious order known as the Redemptorists, who have served at St. Gerard Parish since its founding. He has served most recently as Auxiliary Bishop of Baltimore.
