From the Desk of...

Deacon José Zamora, Pastoral Leader

The first reading is a significant one, for it is an account of Saint Paul's very first apostolic mission. Up until then, Paul was still called Saul, his given name. To the Jewish authorities, Paul was already a traitor and an enemy. Now he was welcoming Gentiles to the area around the synagogue on the sabbath. No wonder they were upset. But Paul did not return their incitement and persecution with confrontation or violence. He and Barnabas converted and baptized many Gentiles, then shook the dust from their feet and traveled elsewhere. It may well be that this first missionary experience of his led to the peripatetic life Paul chose to live.

On Mother's Day, we honor our mothers and all those who have cared for us with a mother's love. From before we can even remember, they held us, fed us, changed us, and guided our footsteps as we learned to walk. Year after year, they cared for us, binding our wounds and encouraging our efforts. Throughout our lives, they have shepherded us. When we think of Jesus as the Good Shepherd, we may think of our mother, holding us gently in her arms or by the hand, rescuing us when we were lost, willing to lay down her life for us. May this confluence of Mother's Day and Good Shepherd Sunday help us link the love we are given by both.

Around Christmas and Easter, parents of young children who question why there are so many Santa Clauses or Easter bunnies at shopping malls often tell them that the real Santa Claus and Easter bunny need lots of helpers to deliver so many presents and goodies. In a similar way, we can think of our mothers and grandmothers and all those who show a mother's love as emissaries of the Good Shepherd, deputized to be good shepherds in many loving ways on behalf of the one true Good Shepherd. How has my mother (or mother figure) been a good shepherd for me? Make sure to thank her today.

2025 Diocese of Toledo Happenings:

Together with all the priests, deacons, consecrated religious and lay faithful of the Diocese of Toledo, and united with all Catholics and people of goodwill throughout the world, with deep sadness we mourn the death of Pope Francis, after 12 years as our universal shepherd, the 265th successor to Saint Peter.

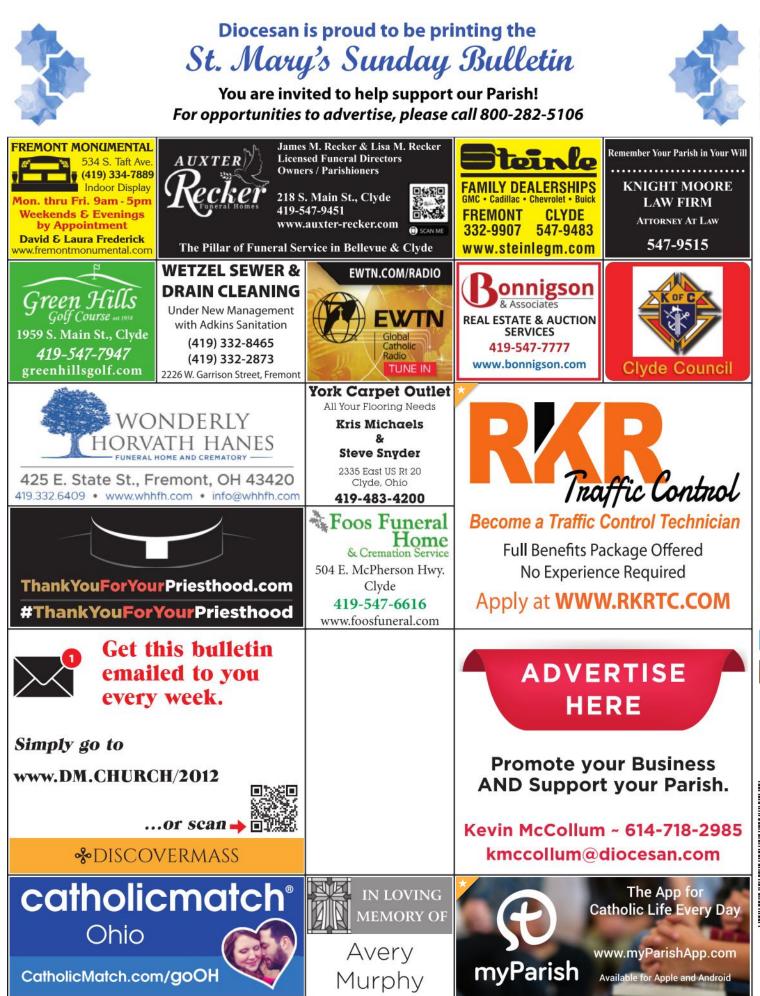

A native son of the Diocese of Toledo was recently named Bishop of Providence, Rhode Island. Most Reverend Bruce A. Lewandowski, CSsR, grew up on a family farm near Lima and attended St. Gerard Parish. He was ordained a priest for the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, the religious order known as the Redemptorists, who have served at St. Gerard Parish since its founding. He has served most recently as Auxiliary Bishop of Baltimore.
