We, the members of St. Mary Parish, dedicated to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, are conscious of the struggles of our faith-filled ancestors. We strive to become a holy and vibrant community through personal prayer, meaningful liturgies, and opportunities to develop our faith. As God's people, we recognize the values and importance of each person and desire to reach out to all the people in our area who need God's Word, Love and Care. The Diocese of Toledo

Mission Statement

remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric or by any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and to contact the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) 214-4880; or to write to: Victim Assistance Coordinator 1933 Spielbusch Avenue Toledo, Ohio 43604.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that the Holy Spirit would remind them of all that he told them. But Jesus had not addressed every matter that would arise. Twenty years later, in the scene at the center of the first reading, the apostles need to decide what to do about uncircumcised Gentiles who want to be baptized as Christians. Some said, "Unless you are circumcised according to the Mosaic practice, you cannot be saved." But Paul and Barnabas dissented. So, they returned to Jerusalem to meet with the apostles and elders. There, guided by the Holy Spirit about this question Jesus never addressed, they decided a minimal number of Mosaic practices were necessary to follow and that circumcision was not one of them. Twenty centuries later, we hope to allow the Holy Spirit to guide church leaders as they debate contentious issues for which the best answer is uncertain.

In John's vision of the heavenly city, described in the second reading, he sees twelve entrances. The number may represent the tribes of Israel or the number of apostles, as John himself points out, but the lesson is that there are many different ways into the city, and from every possible direction. No matter where we come from, there is a way into the heavenly city. There is not only one way in.

"The whole world being at peace," we chant in the Christmas Proclamation on Christmas Eve. But was the entire world really at peace on that blessed night? To ask that question misunderstands the peace that Jesus brought into the world that night, the peace the heavenly host wished in the presence of the shepherds, and the peace that we hear Jesus give to his disciples in today's Gospel. Peace is not merely the cessation of war. After all, the peace brought by an armistice is a peace on the victor's terms, unsatisfactory and resented by those who were defeated, who often bide their time until they can try to win back territory they had lost. No, the peace Christ gives us is the peace in our hearts that informs us that Christ is all we need. We must empty our hearts of ambition, jealousy, resentment, and anything else that does not allow peace to pervade our hearts. Indeed, if the Father and Son are to make their dwelling with us, as Jesus promises us, we must clear our hearts of whatever is incompatible with their presence. This way we can truly receive the peace Christ gives us, the peace the angels proclaimed, the peace that we pray permeates the entire world. What resentments, jealousies, or ambitions do I have in my heart that interfere with the presence of peace? How can I overcome these?

BASILICA of OUR LADY of CONSOLATION

The Basilica of Our Lady of Consolation in Carey has been named by Bishop Thomas as one of the three designated churches in the Diocese of Toledo, along with Holy Rosary Cathedral in Toledo, and Our Lady of Hope in Attica.

In order to receive a plenary indulgence for the Jubilee Year, One must pass through the doors of these churches, recite an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for the intentions of the Holy Father, and receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Holy Eucharist as soon as possible either in the same designated church, their own parish church, or any Catholic Church.

We encourage all of you to consider making a pilgrimage to the Basilica of Our Lady of Consolation, located just off the intersection of US Highways 23 and State Rd. in Carey. In your bulletin, you will find a folder listing all the events for not only this jubilee year, but also the 150th anniversary of the arrival of the miraculous statue of Our Lady of Consolation from Luxemboug on May 24, 1875, and the 100th anniversary of the dedication of the basilica as a church on June 20, 1925.

Many of you might not be aware of this spiritual treasure within a relatively short drive from your parish. Individuals, families, and groups are welcome. If you are interested in scheduling a group visit, please call the shrine office at (419) 396-7107, so we can arrange a tour of the Upper and Lower Basilica for you. Your priests and deacons are most welcome to concelebrate or assist at Mass with the Conventual Franciscan Friars, who have staffed the Basilica since 1912.
