Clyde St. Mary Catholic Church

It is impossible to see the wind per se. What we see is the movement of things it blows, like trees or flags, and feel the movement of air on our skin. It is equally impossible to see the movement of the Holy Spirit. But we can sense that movement by the effect on those through whom the Spirit is flowing. Interestingly, in Acts, Luke twice uses the word glossa, meaning “tongue,” to describe the movement of the Holy Spirit on that first Pentecost. He writes that “tongues as of fire” appeared on each of the Twelve. Then he writes that the Holy Spirit enabled them to proclaim God’s mighty acts in different tongues. All of Jerusalem sensed something special, for they realized that no matter their tongue, they could understand the apostles’ words. Here in this place, we can see the movement of the Holy Spirit no more than we can see the wind, but we can perceive it through the ways the Spirit acts upon us.

“Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth,” we sang in today’s psalm. How does the Holy Spirit renew the face of the earth? Saint Paul tells the Corinthians that the Holy Spirit can forge unity from the deepest divisions: between Jews and Gentiles, between free persons and slaves. Surely, we can identify sharply divided groups today who would be better off finding unity. Paul tells the Romans that the Holy Spirit brings the One who raised Jesus from the dead to dwell in us, while bearing witness that we are God’s children. The Holy Spirit dwells not only in me but also my neighbor, making us sisters and brothers, again finding unity among diverse people. Through this ongoing process, the Holy Spirit continues to renew the face of the earth.

Recall that while Adam and Eve lived in Eden, God would walk around in the garden as well. This is how God came to see that they had sinned. Their sin drove a wedge between heaven and earth, between God and humanity. Since that time, God has tried to reconcile the two. God sent the Son to redeem us and then sent the Holy Spirit to remain with us always. With the Holy Spirit, we have the presence of God in us, reconciling humanity with God. The Holy Spirit guides us toward God and away from sin. This is how we can make manifest the Spirit of God dwelling in us. How do I envision the Holy Spirit renewing the face of the earth? How can I, with the Holy Spirit working through me, be a part of that renewal?

MEMORIAL DAY MASS

in Clyde St. Mary Cemetery was celebrated by Fr. Mark Herzog and attended by quite a few parishioners. Mass was held prior to the annual Memorial Day Parade & Ceremony in which St. Mary is a stop. With the local VFW providing services—this year's veteran honored was Stan Wise, who passed away earlier in 2025.

The family of Patricia Thome would like to thank the Funeral Luncheon Committee, those that donated food to the luncheon, Deacon Jose, and Father Mark Herzog for a beautiful funeral celebrating the life of mother, grandmother, wife and loved one. We appreciate your generosity and prayers.

PRAYER FOR POPE LEO XIV: SHEPHERD OF VOCATIONS

Leo P.P. XIV

Heavenly Father,
You have called Pope Leo XIV
to lead Your Church with wisdom, courage, and compassion.

Before shepherding the world,
he walked closely with those discerning Your call as a vocation director faithfully guiding men to seek and follow You more deeply through the priesthood.

We thank You for the gift of his vocation
and for those he has inspired to embrace Your call.
Anoint him with the fire of the Holy Spirit.
May his leadership inspire a new generation
to say "yes" to Your sacred invitation.
May his words echo Yours: "Come, follow Me."

Grant him strength for the mission ahead,
gentleness of heart, and unwavering hope.

Let his example stir within the Church
a vibrant culture of vocations,
where all listen for Your voice
and respond with joyful trust. AMEN
